AN ORDINANCE

To license exhibitions of skating given in the city of Fort Wayne.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the common council of the city of Fort Wayne that any person giving an exhibition of skating in any arena, building, pavilion or enclosure, at which any fee of admission shall be directly or indirectly charged, shall first obtain from said city a license to do so, at the following rate: for one year twenty-five dollars and fees, and for a less period than one year five dollars per month and fees.

Sec. 2. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall upon conviction forfeit and pay a fine to said city of not less than one dollar nor more than one hundred dollars.

Sec. 3. This ordinance shall be in force and take effect from and after its due publication. Done at the council chamber of said city this 23rd day of December 1884.

THE CITY.

It is not dark until after 5 o'clock now. A little child of Deputy Auditor McClain is quite ill.

Forty-car loads of live stock went east over the Pittsburg road last night. Wabash passenger train No. 45, west bound, was one hour late this morning.

Erastus Shuman opens his new roller skating rink at 42 East Main street this evening.

The Young Men's society of St. Mary's Catholic church will give an entertainment to-morrow evening.

Frank A. Barrows has purchased the residence property of J. A. M. Storm, in Rockhill's amended addition.

It is said that ex-Sheriff Schiefer contemplates entering into the manufacture of boots and shoes on a large scale.

The young lady who received such a severe shock at the museum is under treatment at the St. Joseph hospital.

Twenty applications were made in the last two weeks for admission into the German Lutheran Library association.

M. P. Walsh has resigned his position as agent of the Grand Rapids road at Decatur and C. C. Humphrey succeeds him.

The aged mother of Frank Chapman, of the treasurer's office, recently received a stroke of paralysis. Her recovery is doubtful.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Mulharen took place this morning from the residence of her son, Thomas Mulharen, No. 17 Bass street.

Myer L. Graff is the legal representative of Moses Kochin in this city. Charley Nathan has supervision of the clothing store at present.

The Ford opera company came in this morning from Lafayette. The sale of advanced seats is quite large for the opera to-night and to-morrow night.

The Fort Wayne Sengerbund society will give their annual masquerade ball on Tuesday evening preceding Ash Wednesday, the first of the Lenten season.

The Pittsburg office at Adams station was reopened to day and tickets are now sold there. The office was closed since young Ahringer's removal to Chicago.

J. F. Burrill, business manager of the Ford-Seguin Opera company, feels very much aggrieved on account of the way his paper was treated on some of the bill boards.

Supt. C. D. Law is at Chicago. He has ordered the inauguration of the double headed freight train scheme on the Pittsburg road, and about sixty brakemen lost their positions to-day.

A night watchman in the Wabash shops has been dismissed from the service. Some one set fire to the shop door a night or two ago and when the blaze was discovered by road men, the watchman could not be found.

George J. E. Mayer now exhibits a handsome drawing of the Grand hotel it is proposed to erect on the site of the present Mayer house. The building is a beauty, and the work of Edbrooke & Barnham, Chicago architects.

The Eagle Machine works of Indianapolis have commenced proceedings against Bill Wickensham, late an agricultural dealer of this city, for embezzlement. Wickensham has not been heard of since his departure from the city.

Yesterday Dr. K. K. Wheelock successfully removed a portion of the iris from the eye of Mrs. O. Foster, of Antwerp, Ohio. The new anesthetic, muriate of cocaine, was used and the patient did not experience the slightest pain.

Chief Hilbrecht and Councilmen Wolf, Ely and Doehman are still examining fire escape facilities in the public buildings and find many of them without any safe means of exit. The result of their investigation will be embodied in a report to the council next Tuesday evening.

W. W. Rockhill, secretary of the Northern Indiana Fair association, has received quite a number of the annual reports of the Indiana state board of agriculture which he will present, free of charge, to farmers and others interested in agriculture. Mr. Rockhill can be found at his office in the city hall.

The Ford-Seguin Opera company at the Academy of Music to-night will render "Fra Diavolo." Mrs. Seguin appears as Lady Alceah, and Miss Lulu Evans as Zerlina. The support is said to be good, and our exchanges speak very highly of the company. To-morrow night they will render "Little Duke."

Two weeks from next Thursday is the date fixed for the charity entertainment at Library hall. Rev. Father Brammer donates the use of Library hall, and Prof. John Mohr superintends the festivities, so that no expense is to attach to the entertainment. The proceeds are to go to the poor of the city, irrespective of creed and will be distributed, as the charity societies and pastors of the city churches direct.

One of Wilding's coal wagons broke a wheel yesterday and collapsed on Calhoun street.

Frank Cosgrove has just received from Illinois a handsome bay horse which he adds to his fine livery stable.

Prof. Louis Mahler will conduct the maneuvers of the children at the "Wishing Well" charity entertainment. Quite a number of fancy dances will be executed.

The telephone exchange at North Manchester, Wabash county, has ceased to be a paying investment to the company, and it has been closed permanently by Manager Perry, of this city.

Sister Woodworth, the evangelist, is conducting a revival at Synouse, Kosciusko county. The lady is shortly to come here. The Sentinel made the evangelist famous in Northern Indiana.

Moses Koch, the new proprietor of the Star clothing house, is quite wealthy. On the bond Mr. Koch furnished Sheriff Nelson, appears the names of Moses Koch, Hannah Nirdlinger and the Nathan brothers.

The topic of the prayer services in the Congregational church this evening is, "prayer for a better understanding of God's word;" for to-morrow evening, "prayer for all who are exposed to peculiar temptations."

The indications for the lower lake region as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL are as follows: Local rains or snows followed by slightly colder, fair weather, westerly winds, rising barometer.

The Warsaw Times says: "The Fort Wayne papers have been quite severe on Mr. Jeffries, the author of the 'Hillsdale Spy.' There must be an old grudge towards that gentleman among the 'press gang' of the Summit City; or at least Mr. Jeffries so intimated when in this place, not long since." Mr. Jeffries is only personally known to one or two newspaper men here, and they do not hate, but rather pity him.

A SECOND CHAPTER.

Sheriff Nelson Admits George Scott Consented to Participation in the Train Wrecking Business—Why the Official was Deceived.

The city papers have been blowing hot and cold about the confession of George Scott, first published in THE SENTINEL. Every sentence of the article in this paper was true, and the facts therein came from the lips of the railroad directors, who were present at Scott's arrest. Last evening THE SENTINEL representative approached Sheriff Nelson on the matter. "Yes," said the sheriff, "George Scott did confess to myself and Deputy Sheriff Clausmeyer that he was one of the four men who wrecked the Wabash train at Prairie Switch. I desired to withhold the confession from the public until the other criminals, whose names I have, were arrested. What object the railroad detective had in exposing the secrets I cannot say, but no more harm can come from a knowledge of the fact of Scott's confession. He is a member of the gang of Logansport counterfeiters and I know we have scattered a desperate party of men. I am sorry all the criminals are not in jail, but I will not rest until they are."

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Their Installation of Officers and Banquet Last Night.

A very large and fashionable audience gathered at Castle Hall last night to witness the installation of officers of Phoenix and Fort Wayne lodges, Knights of Pythias. There was a solemnity about the ceremonies which was most impressive. Samuel Sinclair, district deputy grand commander, assisted by Robert E. Stratton, grand master-at-arms, were the installing officers.

The officers of Fort Wayne lodge took their positions and were then installed in their respective offices, as follows: Past Chancellor, M. N. Jacobs; Chancellor Commander, Herman Goldsmith; Vice Chancellor, F. W. Wilson; Prolate, G. B. McIntosh; Master at Arms, L. K. Eaton; Inner Guard, C. V. Milliman; Outer Guard, C. M. Hershey.

In like manner the following officers of Phoenix lodge were installed: Past Chancellor, T. W. Blair; Chancellor Commander, Finis Cartwright; Prolate, J. Smith; Master at Arms, Philo Phelan; Inner Guard, George Shaw.

At the conclusion of the first ceremony Sir Knight G. W. Wilson, on behalf of Fort Wayne lodge, presented Past Chancellor M. N. Jacobs an elegant gold badge appropriate to his high office. Sir Knight Jacobs responded in a pleasing manner. A similar jewel was presented to Past Chancellor T. W. Blair by Sir Knight James B. Harper on behalf of Phoenix lodge.

The concluding banquet and ball at Arion hall was attended by all the Sir Knights and their ladies. Among the toasts at the banquet were "Our Order," to which T. W. Blair responded, "Our Ladies," by J. B. Harper, and "The Press," by S. E. Sinclair. The ball continued until late.

A TERRIBLE PRECIPITANT.

Frank Walters, a Township School Teacher, Breaks into the St. Joe River and Sacrifices Both Arms to Save His Life.

Frank Cosgrove, the livery stable man, brings intelligence of a frightful casualty from the northern part of this county. Frank Walters, a bright young man, teaches school in St. Joe township and boards across the river. It is some distance from the school house to his home, around by the Cedarville bridge, and last Friday morning he undertook to cross the river on the ice. Mr. Walters did not trust the congealed and secured a long pole to test its strength in advance. He proceeded carefully to about the middle of the swollen stream, when the ice suddenly broke, and Walters dropped down like a bullet. He clung to the pole, which lay crosswise on the ice, with a vice-like grip and managed to keep his head and arms out of the water. There the man was hemmed and the feeble efforts he made to extricate himself availed naught. An hour passed and no assistance came. Finally his scholars became alarmed and started out to search for the school master. They too thought to cross over the river to his home, and proceeded as far as the river bank when, to their horror, they perceived the terrible predicament of their tutor. The cries of the children soon brought help and strong arms pulled Mr. Walters more dead than alive from the river. His fingers were frozen stiff and clutched the pole with all the force death agony could summon, and his arms to his shoulders were stiff and cold while his ears and the tip of his nose dropped off at the first approach of warmth. Physicians were summoned and the stiff arms amputated to guard against gangrene and certain death. At present Walters lies in a stupor, still his recovery is predicted. He is a brother of David Walters, the butcher, of this city.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

Mrs. Hugh McCulloch Entertains in Honor of Her Daughter, Mrs. John Brooks Yale, at Her Washington Mansion.

The New York Times gives a column account of the brilliant reception given last Saturday evening at their Washington home by Secretary and Mrs. Charles McCulloch, parents of Hon. Charles McCulloch, president of Hamilton National bank. All the old family friends of Secretary and Mrs. McCulloch were included, with the newer line of officials present. Mrs. McCulloch resided in a black watered silk with draperies and sleeves of jetted lace over white silk. Mrs. Yale, formerly Miss Louise McCulloch, wore her wedding dress of white brocade and satin. Miss Mary McCulloch, with her cousins the Misses Wingate, of New York, wore pretty costumes of white nun's veiling, lace and satin ribbons, and Miss Louis Mann, of New York, wore white camel's hair. Miss McCulloch had a group of the season's debutants with her during the evening, including the Misses Sturgis, Rockwell and Ricketts. Among those wearing handsome toilets were Mrs. Brewster, in pale blue brocade and diamonds; Mrs. Cockrell, in turquoise brocade and silk; Mrs. Logan, in crimson velvet; Mrs. Robert G. Ingersoll, in crimson silk and Chantilly lace; Mrs. Horatio C. Burchard, in ruby brocade; Mrs. Warren Miller, in orange satin and brocade; Miss Root, in pale blue silk and lace; Mrs. Morrill, in pearl-colored silk and brocade.

Among those present were President Arthur, Mrs. McElroy, General Sherman, Secretary and Mrs. Frelinghuysen, Secretary and Mrs. Chandler, Postmaster-General and Mrs. Hutton, Justice Harlan, Justice Grey, Minister and Mrs. Foster, General and Mrs. Sheridan, General and Mrs. VanVleet, Prof. and Mrs. Hilgard, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Baxter, Colonel and Mrs. Ingersoll, Senators Morrill, Sherman, Miller Pendleton and Voorhees, the Japanese minister and Mme. Kuki, the Chinese minister and suite, ex-Commissioner and Mrs. Dole, ex-Senator and Mrs. Pomeroy, the Russian minister and Mme. de Struve, Justice and Mrs. Field, Mr. Blaine, Justice and Miss Miller, General and Mrs. Drum, General and Mrs. Sturgis, Judge Wylie, Senator and Mrs. Groome, Senator and Mrs. Logan, Senator and Mrs. Oullom, Assistant Secretary and Mrs. John Davis, Representative and Mrs. Theodore Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Mullett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nordhoff, Representative and Mrs. Holman, the Spanish minister and Mr. Lowry.

"Fra Diavolo."

Terre Haute Express: "Fra Diavolo is a most agreeable opera full of sweet, seductive music in which is many an air one would like to hear over and over, although already familiar. Mrs. Seguin was charming as Lady Alceah and displayed her versatility as a pleasant actress and delightful singer. James G. Peakes as Lord Allonst was as natural very clever. In the quintette of the first act the audience had a revelation of Miss Lulu Evans, the pretty Zerlina, as a singer, whose voice displayed great flexibility and sweetness and gained in favor with

When a remedy has proven itself to be a cure for consumption and a perfect lung restorer, it should be kept in every well regulated home. We refer to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, a single dose of which will cure an ordinary cold or cough. A few bottles will cure consumption. It is very pleasant to take.

The Hudson river ice crop will be the finest gathered for years.

Catarrh

Is a very prevalent and exceedingly disagreeable disease, liable, if neglected, to develop into serious consumption. Being a constitutional disease, it requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, acting through the blood, reaches every part of the system, effecting a radical and permanent cure of catarrh in even its most severe forms. Made only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Dr. Holmes, who worked nearly a year on his recently published estimate of Emerson, declared it was the most difficult work he had ever undertaken.

D'BULL'S COUGH SYRUP
